Margaret in Indiana said:

"I have purchased the entire set of four for my religious education class. The coloring books are an incredible way to augment the class material presented and to reinforce our faith. Children will be learning as they are enjoying an activity of fun in creatively coloring. The coloring books are a ministry in themselves!!"

"For over a year we have done a monthly "Family Rosary Night" with our friends, and we have tried various ways to engage the kids (ages newborn to 10 years old) in contemplating the mysteries and listening to what Jesus and his Blessed Mother have to say to us about our lives. Your CDs have truly hit the right note - the meditations and Scripture verses illuminate the "stories" and lessons like I have never been able to and the kids are really responding to it. I am so glad to have found a resource (done by and for kids, no less!) that combines hard-core catechesis with the loving intimacy of a personal relationship with Jesus. I look forward to seeing what Holy Heroes will bring us next!"

PRICE $14.95

As heard on EWTN Global Catholic Radio Network, Sirius XM, and other Catholic networks nationwide!

Theresa in a California parish said: "We used this CD for our Sunday School's Stations of the Cross with grades 1 and 2. The students were engaged and focused on the images in the coloring books as well as the words and sounds of the CD. We would definitely use it again!"

Catholic Icing

Here's what Lacy at Catholic Icing said:

"This Stations of the Cross CD from Holy Heroes is fantastic! I think every Catholic family with kids should have a copy. In fact, I think it's good even if you don't have kids."

This goes through all the Stations, and is extremely professional and well done! You can hear all the sounds in the background, such as horses and the crowd shouting.

I love this because it helps you visualize what's going on, but I love that it's not a movie because it's not "overly visual" for kids. You just hear the sound of a cracking whip, and your imagination takes over the rest."

Glory Stories® Audio CDs

Our flagship series of stories—with more being produced all the time!

Each saint story teaches the Catholic Faith through the true-life story of a Saint or Blessed—children and adults—who provides an example for us to follow as we strive here on earth to know, love, and serve God, so we can be with Him forever in Heaven.

Each Glory Story:

- Emphasizes a Scriptural verse — so they memorize a verse as it was lived out!
- Uses the actual words of the saint as much as we can — since God writes more inspiring stories than we can!
- Appeals to children of all ages (and adults, too) — because everyone will hear the words and comprehend the actions of the saints at their own level of knowledge, experience, and maturity, so you can listen over and over again!

Lenora is a military mom overseas:

"I think one of the nicest things about Glory Stories is that they begin when these saints were 'just regular people' and show how, little by little, they learned their faith and desired to share it, and God blessed them for that. If I had to pick one word to describe the Glory Stories, it would be 'encouraging!'"

Altar Gang® Audio CD

He's Coming!

PRICE $14.95

It's the beginning of Advent, and the Gang is decorating the Church. Skiff is distracted by the smell of cookies and wanders off. AJ must find him before Mass starts, but when he does, the temptation to eat cookies might be too great. Will AJ and Skiff get back in time for the beginning of Mass? Will they stuff themselves with cookies? Will they learn the importance of Advent? Join the Altar Gang for this adventure and find out.

EPISODE 1 The True Meaning of Advent

Holes in head where holy water sprays out.

He's the only one with arms. This special gift makes him very useful to the Gang.

Rollerblade wheels: built for speed and maneuverability.

AJ is energetic, silly, and likes being the center of attention. He comes from an automated assembly factory where aspergillums and rollerblades are made on the assembly line. When the computer-programmed robots accidentally mixed a rollerblade wheel with an aspergillum, AJ popped out the other end of the conveyor belt. An aspergillum looks like a handle with a hollow ball at the top. The ball has holes in it for sprinkling Holy Water. The priest walks up and down the aisle, dipping the aspergillum in a bucket of Holy Water and blessing the people by swinging it like a hammer. This is usually done during Lent and on other special occasions.

Jenine in Georgia recognizes the power of media: "We purchased this CD as a gift for our children (ages 5-9) as Advent was approaching. They thoroughly enjoyed listening to it and asked for it to be played over and over again. They read all the information in the CD sleeve about the characters in order to get to know the characters better. They have also noticed in looking through other Holy Heroes products, that there are other Altar Gang CDs, and they are eagerly asking for them! I often hear them getting into "character" throughout the day as they attempt to talk like one of the Altar Gang characters with each other. It was fun for me to see them enjoying media that was not only entertaining, but also enhancing their knowledge of faith and virtue. Thank you for making a wonderful product."

Altar Gang® Audio CD

We've Been Wronged!

ALTAR
GANG

Character Spotlight

Hinged top for access to the incense, which doubles as a nice hairdo.

Big hollow belly where incense is stored.

Skiff the Incense Boat

Skiff, a fun-loving, adventurous, and faithful incense holder, comes from a small religious shop in Spain. A poor couple, who devoted their lives to making beautiful religious articles, fashioned him out of scraps of silver. Skiff was delivered by mistake to Father's rectory. No one ever claimed him, so Father adopted him as his own and set him to work. Skiff holds the incense, a substance which smells pleasant when burnt. Until the incense is ready to be burnt, Skiff keeps it fresh like a zip-lock bag keeps a sandwich fresh.

Did you know "skiff" means a small boat with a pointed bow and a square stern?

EPISODE 2 It's About Forgiveness

Christine enjoys this with her little one in Florida:

"My 2.5 year old LOVES the Altar Gang. He sings along and laughs with the characters! Thank you so much for making this wholesome entertainment available for us!"

EPISODE 3 It's about First Holy Communion

ALTAR
GANG

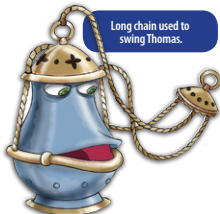

Character Spotlight

Thomas the Thurbile

Thomas, a brilliant scholar of theology, was made in France and knows several languages. Books are very important to him, and he is always reading. Wanting to discover the life of a simple parish thurbile, Thomas moved to the parish and serves Father happily. The thurbile holds the burning incense. It has a top and bottom that are connected together by a long chain. The bottom part holds a piece of charcoal. This charcoal is lit, and incense is placed on it, which makes the incense burn, giving off smoke and a distinct smell. The priest then holds the long chain and swings the thurbile back and forth to waft the incense around the altar or over the Gospel book.

Vents allow the smoke to disperse.

Long chain used to swing Thomas.

The charcoal is lit here in his belly.

From Arizona, Sarah writes:

"I think we are listening to this for the 16th time this week! The kids love it, and after their third time listening, I found them playing Mass with their dolls and singing, 'Alleluia!' What a great CD!"

Skiff decides to turn AJ's love for adventure into a quest that will take them into the great unknown of a woman's womb — and into the presence of God's greatest gift: life!

Will AJ learn to appreciate the adventure of really living? Will the dynamic duo ever muster enough power to break out of the womb and return home to their garage? Only a fantastic voyage will tell!

Sue's kids in Pennsylvania do, too:

"My kids (7,6,4 & 3) LOVE this film. They have so much fun watching and still "get" the message...a baby is a person, no matter how small. I also love the songs and the interaction between the parents and the priest. A+! Can't wait for more!!!"

PRICE $14.95

Another sweet music CD for children by Jean Prather, Kathy Dobbin, and the Sweet Voices Children's Choir. This CD is unlike any other that we know of for children because it teaches the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary, along with beautifully sung songs. Includes 17 songs, beautifully sung with lyrics that teach the faith, plus 7 more piano instrumentals of classic Catholic tunes. Fill your home or car with the sounds of children singing songs that children will love about Our Blessed Mother, her Child, and her home.

Sara and daughter singing along in Illinois:

"My 4-year-old requests this CD every time we are in the car. It is impossible for her to pick a favorite song because she loves them all—and I feel good because she is learning sound Catholic teaching as she is singing. P.S. I sing along, too. :)"

Holy Heroes® Music CD

Songs of Faith & Joy

PRICE $14.95

We first heard these songs when our oldest child was five, and we have been singing them ever since. These are the sweetest Catholic children's songs we know. Our children, including our four year old, sing them all the time. Eleven fun and faith-filled children's songs teach the faith and prayers through happy melodies, sung by Jean Prather and the Sweet Voices Children's Choir, accompanied by Kathy Dobbin. Includes all the songs heard in Summer Faith Adventure plus five bonus tracks.

Everyone loves "To Be a Saint!" (even Alicia's sons in Georgia):
"My three sons usually complain about the 'Jesus Music' that I find and play for them. They fell in love with the first song and love to sing along with this entire CD! Thanks for offering such a wonderful resource!"

Has this happened to you?

Becky in Nebraska told us a common problem: "I made a somewhat elaborate Jesse Tree last year & wanted to go through it each day with my kiddos (aged 5, 3, 3, and 2). But...it was WAY above their heads, and I struggled to explain some of the symbols' meanings, too. Your DVD makes it EASY and a JOY for all! Thank you!"

Raising 11 children has taught Nancy and me to recognize a great Catholic resource when we see it. A superb tool for really reaching children with the meaning and importance of the Holy Eucharist. Get it! I'm certain God will bless you for it!

Mary emailed from New Jersey:

"Awesome – not the usual baby food fed to children but real meat. It's about time the younger generation received proper spiritual nourishment about the Bread of Life. I sat there educated and enthralled."

The Picture Bible

Archbishop Fulton Sheen (soon to be beatified!) said, "This Picture Bible for all ages is an excellent introduction to those who do not know the Bible and an excellent review for those who do."

Anne tells us this is the "go-to" gift in Connecticut:

"This is a wonderful book that kids actually want to read. The presentation in the style of comic books makes it very kid-friendly and accessible. All the important stories are here from the Old and New Testaments. Maps, "Did You Know?" and "Life in Bible Times" sections round the book out nicely. I have since purchased another copy as a First Communion gift for a young man. This will be my go-to gift for young people ages 7-12 or even 13. It's a worthwhile addition to any family library."

Read-Aloud Book of Bible Stories

Holds the attention of even the most restless child. Your children (and grandchildren!) will marvel at the Old Testament stories, the prophecies of the coming Savior, be charmed by the gentle goodness of Jesus' boyhood, and be dazzled by the scores of miracles that proved He is the Messiah coming to save Israel . . . and all of us, too!

Kerri, the Holy Heroes
Mom, says:

*"Our 4 little girls love to have Daddy read them these stories, and they are inspired to interject all sorts of questions and comments. Although the older ones could read these themselves, these stories were written to be read out loud, an art that is almost lost in today's world of i-pads and other i-things. You want this book in your home!"

Clare's Costly Cookie

"This book is a series of everyday incidents in Clare's life that she brings to prayer. I'm using it as part of First Confession/Communion prep for my daughter and she really likes it. It's a gentle introduction to prayer as a relationship with Jesus, rather than just a formal thing to do at set times with the family." (Anna, Nebraska)

Mitzi from California says, "My four year old enjoyed hearing Clare's "adventures." The themes of each chapter are common scenarios that kids find themselves in. The dialogue with Jesus that Clare carries on gives my daughter insights into what could be a better approach to disagreements, fights, etc. without it becoming "preachy", since it doesn't come from Mama, but a fellow child."
