

The Angel appeared to the children in order to prepare them for some even greater heavenly visions. The next year, on May 13th, while the children were watching their sheep and playing, they saw a large flash of lightning. A few minutes later, the children saw a beautiful lady all dressed in white, standing on the holmoak tree.