They said this to test Jesus, so that they could have some charge to bring against Him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with His finger. But when they continued asking Him, He straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again He bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. (John 8:6–9)

Fifth Sunday of Lent (Scrutinies), April 3, 2022

The sisters of Lazarus sent word to Jesus, saying, "Master, the one You love is ill." When Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. He became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to Him, "Sir, come and see." And Jesus wept. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." He cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. (John 11:3, 17, 33-35, 43-44)
