

Pentecost Sunday (Vigil Mass)

When the extended form of the Vigil Mass is celebrated, all four readings are proclaimed. If celebrated in the simple form, only one of the following is proclaimed as the First Reading.

Reading 1Genesis 11:1-9

The whole world spoke the same language, using the same words. While the people were migrating in the east, they came upon a valley in the land of Shinar and settled there. They said to one another, "Come, let us mold bricks and harden them with fire."

They used bricks for stone, and bitumen for mortar. Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the sky, and so make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered all over the earth."

The LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the people had built. Then the LORD said: "'If now, while they are one people, all speaking the same language, they have started to do this, nothing will later stop them from doing whatever they presume to do. Let us then go down there and confuse their language, so that one will not understand what another says."

Thus the LORD scattered them from there all over the earth, and they stopped building the city. That is why it was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the speech of all the world. It was from that place that he scattered them all over the earth.

Responsorial PsalmPsalm 33:10-11, 12-13, 14-15

R. (12) Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be His own.

The LORD brings to nought the plans of nations;
He foils the designs of peoples.

But the plan of the LORD stands forever;
the design of His heart, through all generations.

R. Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be His own.

Blessed the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people He has chosen for His own inheritance.
From Heaven the LORD looks down; He sees all mankind.

R. Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be His own.

From His fixed throne He beholds
all who dwell on the earth,
He who fashioned the heart of each,
He who knows all their works.

R. Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be His own.

Pentecost Sunday (Vigil Mass)

Moses went up the mountain to God. Then the LORD called to him and said, ""Thus shall you say to the house of Jacob; tell the Israelites: You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings and brought you here to Myself. Therefore, if you hearken to My Voice and keep My covenant, you shall be My special possession, dearer to Me than all other people, though all the earth is Mine. You shall be to Me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation. That is what you must tell the Israelites." So Moses went and summoned the elders of the people. When he set before them all that the LORD had ordered him to tell them, the people all answered together, "Everything the LORD has said, we will do."

On the morning of the third day there were peals of thunder and lightning, and a heavy cloud over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast, so that all the people in the camp trembled. But Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stationed themselves at the foot of the mountain. Mount Sinai was all wrapped in smoke, for the LORD came down upon it in fire. The smoke rose from it as though from a furnace, and the whole mountain trembled violently. The trumpet blast grew louder and louder, while Moses was speaking, and God answering him with thunder.

When the LORD came down to the top of Mount Sinai, He summoned Moses to the top of the mountain.

Responsorial PsalmDaniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56*R. (52b) Glory and praise forever!

"Blessed are You, O Lord, the God of our fathers, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever; And blessed is Your holy and glorious Name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages."

R. Glory and praise forever!

"Blessed are You in the temple of Your holy glory, praiseworthy and glorious above all forever."

R. Glory and praise forever!

"Blessed are You on the throne of Your Kingdom, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever."

R. Glory and praise forever!

"Blessed are You who look into the depths from Your throne upon the cherubim, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever."

R. Glory and praise forever!

"Blessed are You in the firmament of Heaven, praiseworthy and glorious forever."

R. Glory and praise forever!OR:*Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11*R. (John 6:68c) Lord, You have the words of everlasting life.

The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul; The decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.

R. Lord, You have the words of everlasting life.

The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; The command of the LORD is clear, enlightening the eye.

R. Lord, You have the words of everlasting life.

The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; The ordinances of the LORD are true, all of them just.

R. Lord, You have the words of everlasting life.

They are more precious than gold, than a heap of purest gold; Sweeter also than syrup or honey from the comb.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

Pentecost Sunday (Vigil Mass)

The hand of the LORD came upon me, and He led me out in the Spirit of the LORD and set me in the center of the plain, which was now filled with bones. He made me walk among the bones in every direction so that I saw how many they were on the surface of the plain. How dry they were!

He asked me: Son of man, can these bones come to life? I answered, ""Lord GOD, You alone know that.""

Then He said to me:

Prophesy over these bones, and say to them:

Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!

Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: See! I will bring spirit into you, that you may come to life. I will put sinews upon you, make flesh grow over you, cover you with skin, and put spirit in you so that you may come to life and know that I am the LORD. I, Ezekiel, prophesied as I had been told, and even as I was prophesying I heard a noise; it was a rattling as the bones came together, bone joining bone. I saw the sinews and the flesh come upon them, and the skin cover them, but there was no spirit in them.

Then the LORD said to me:

Prophesy to the spirit, prophesy, son of man, and say to the spirit: Thus says the Lord GOD:

From the four winds come, O spirit, and breathe into these slain that they may come to life. I prophesied as He told me, and the spirit came into them; they came alive and stood upright, a vast army.

Then He said to me: Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They have been saying, "Our bones are dried up, our hope is lost, and we are cut off."

Therefore, prophesy and say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD: O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel.

Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people! I will put My Spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the LORD. I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

Responsorial PsalmPsalm 107:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. (1) Give thanks to the Lord; His love is everlasting.
or:

R. Alleluia.

Let the redeemed of the LORD say, those whom He has redeemed from the hand of the foe
And gathered from the lands, from the east and the west, from the north and the south.

R. Give thanks to the Lord; His love is everlasting.
or:

R. Alleluia.

They went astray in the desert wilderness;
the way to an inhabited city they did not find.
Hungry and thirsty, their life was wasting away within them.

R. Give thanks to the Lord; His love is everlasting.
or:

R. Alleluia.

They cried to the LORD in their distress; from their straits He rescued them.
And He led them by a direct way to reach an inhabited city.

R. Give thanks to the Lord; His love is everlasting.
or:

R. Alleluia.

Let them give thanks to the LORD for His mercy and His wondrous deeds to the children of men, Because He satisfied the longing soul and filled the hungry soul with good things.

R. Give thanks to the Lord; his love is everlasting.
or:

R. Alleluia.

Reading 4

Joel 3:1-5

Thus says the LORD:

I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh. Your sons and daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions; even upon the servants and the handmaids, in those days, I will pour out My Spirit. And I will work wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood, fire, and columns of smoke; the sun will be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, at the coming of the day of the LORD, the great and terrible day. Then everyone shall be rescued who calls on the Name of the LORD; for on Mount Zion there shall be a remnant, as the LORD has said, and in Jerusalem survivors whom the LORD shall call.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 104:1-2, 24 and 35, 27-28, 29-30

R. (cf. 30) Lord, send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, You are great indeed!

You are clothed with majesty and glory,
robed in light as with a cloak.

R. Lord, send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

How manifold are Your works, O LORD!

In wisdom You have wrought them all—

the earth is full of Your creatures;

bless the LORD, O my soul! Alleluia.

R. Lord, send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Creatures all look to You to give them food in due time.

When You give it to them, they gather it;

when You open Your hand, they are filled with good things.

R. Lord, send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

If You take away their breath, they perish

and return to their dust.

When You send forth Your Spirit, they are created,

and You renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Pentecost Sunday (Vigil Mass)

Brothers and sisters:

We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that sees is not hope. For who hopes for what one sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait with endurance.

In the same way, the Spirit too comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit Himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings. And the One Who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because He intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will.

Gospel ReadingJohn 7:37-39

Jesus stood up and exclaimed, "Let anyone who thirsts come to Me and drink. As Scripture says:
Rivers of living water will flow from within him who believes in me."

He said this in reference to the Spirit that those who came to believe in Him were to receive.

There was, of course, no Spirit yet, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

June 5, 2022: Pentecost SundayFirst Reading*Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under Heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Responsorial PsalmPsalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

R. (cf. 30) Lord, send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, You are great indeed!

How manifold are Your works, O LORD!

the earth is full of Your creatures.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;

may the LORD be glad in His works!

Pleasing to Him be my theme;

I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

If you take away their breath, they perish
and return to their dust.

When You send forth Your spirit, they are created,
and You renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters:

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit;
there are different forms of service but the same Lord;
there are different workings but the same God Who produces all of them in everyone.
To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Second Reading for Option for Cycle C

Romans 8:8-17

Brothers and sisters:

Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to Him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the One Who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the One Who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through His Spirit that dwells in you.

Consequently, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!"

The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

June 5, 2022: Pentecost Sunday

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
 Shed a ray of light divine!
Come, Father of the poor!
Come, Source of all our store!
 Come, within our bosoms shine.
You, of comforters the best;
You, the soul's most welcome guest;
 Sweet refreshment here below;
In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
 Solace in the midst of woe.
O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours,
 And our inmost being fill!
Where you are not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
 Nothing free from taint of ill.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew;
 Wash the stains of guilt away:
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
 Guide the steps that go astray.
On the faithful, who adore
And confess You, evermore
 In Your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue's sure reward;
Give them Your salvation, Lord;
 Give them joys that never end. Amen.
Alleluia.

Gospel ReadingJohn 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."
When He had said this, He showed them His hands and his side.
The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.
Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent Me, so I send you."
And when He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them,
"Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Gospel Reading Option for Cycle CJohn 14:15-16, 23b-26

Jesus said to His disciples:
"If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.
And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate to be with you always.

"Whoever loves Me will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make Our dwelling with him.
Those who do not love Me do not keep My words; yet the word you hear is not Mine but that of the Father Who sent Me.

"I have told you this while I am with you.
The Advocate, the Holy Spirit Whom the Father will send in My Name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you."
