

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught.
The people were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.
(Mark 1:21-22)