

When the great crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, they took palm branches and went out to meet Him, and cried out: “Hosanna! “Blessed is He Who comes in the Name of the Lord, the King of Israel.” (John 12:12-13)