"Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them; His face shone like the sun and His clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with Him" (Matthew 17:1-3)

During the fourth watch of the night, He came toward them walking on the sea. When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea they were terrified. "It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter said to Him in reply, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water." He said, "Come." (Mt. 14:26-30)

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Certainly He would not have wanted the body of the woman who gave Him His human body to lie separated from her soul in death when He could raise her whole, in body and soul, to be with Him as they had been on earth. And, since it was within Jesus' power to grant her this great honor, to raise her up to Heaven just as He will raise all those who are saved on the last day, we must believe that He really acted in this way, raising her up to be with Him in Heaven.

A woman came to Jesus saying, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon ... Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour. (Mt. 15:22, 27–28)

"And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in Heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in Heaven."
(Matthew 16: 18)

Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after Me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it." (Matthew 16:24)
