The shepherds, "...went with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they saw it they made known the saying which had been told them concerning this child; and all who heard it wondered at what the shepherds told them. But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them." (Luke 2:16-20)

On January 28th, the Church celebrates the feast day of St. Thomas Aquinas!

St. Thomas wrote, "Now our knowledge of the angels is imperfect... But if we knew the offices and distinctions of the angels perfectly, we should know perfectly that each angel has his own office and his own order among things, and much more so than any star, though this be hidden from us." (Summa Theologica, Question 108, Article 3)

Directions: Below are the names and illustrations of the 9 choirs of angels.

Each of the illustrations is numbered. Write the number on the line to match the illustration with the correct choir of angels.
