

HOLY HEROES

MASS PREP

You shall love
the Lord your God with all
your heart
and with all your soul,
and with all
your mind:
this is the great and first
commandment.

And a second
is like it,
You shall love
your neighbor
as yourself.
On these two
commandments
depend all
the law and the prophets.

HOLY HEROES
MASS PREP

In this week's 1st Reading, we heard that the prophet Elijah goes to a city called Zarephath. While in this city, he meets a widow and asks her for a cup of water and some bread. She tells Elijah that she only has a small amount of flour and oil left; after it is gone she and her son will die of hunger. Elijah responds that the once the widow bakes him a small cake, the LORD will not let her flour and oil run out. The widow followed Elijah's instructions and "...she and he and her household ate for many days. The jar of flour was not spent, neither did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by Elijah." (1Kings 17:15-16)

"Pilate entered the praetorium again and called Jesus, and said to Him, 'Are You the King of the Jews?' Jesus answered, 'Do you say this of your own accord, or did others say it to you about Me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed You over to me; what have You done?' Jesus answered, 'My kingship is not of this world; if My kingship were of this world, My servants would fight, that I might not be handed over to the Jews; but My kingship is not from the world.'" (John 18:33-36)
