

Helping You Bring the Joy of the Faith to Your Family

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of Me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in Heaven.” (Matthew 5: 2–12a)

Seventh Spiritual Work of Mercy PRAY FOR THE LIVING AND THE DEAD

Prayers asking God for His Mercy on all people support all the other works of mercy that we can do. As Saint Ignatius of Loyola said, we should, “Pray as if everything depends on God, and work as if everything depended on you.”

The Bible tells us that to pray for the dead is a “holy and pious thought . . . that they might be delivered from their sin.” (2 Maccabees 12:45)

Whom do you want to remember to pray for? Ask others to pray, too!

Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these."

-Mark 12:29-31

Helping You Bring the Joy of the Faith to Your Family

Jesus sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling His disciples to Himself, He said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." (Mark 12:41-44)

And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.
And then He will send out the angels, and gather His elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the Heaven. But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in Heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. (Mark 13: 26-27, 32)

Jesus answered, "My Kingdom does not belong to this world. If My Kingdom did belong to this world, My attendants would be fighting to keep Me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, My Kingdom is not here."

-John 18:35-36

November 30

It's the Feast Day of St Andrew the Apostle!

Did you know Saint Andrew was a disciple of John the Baptist? Then, one day when John the Baptist saw Jesus coming, Andrew immediately left John to follow Jesus—becoming the first Apostle of Jesus! COLOR the scene below from the story of Saint Andrew.

John was standing with two of his disciples, and he looked at Jesus as He walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" One of the disciples who heard John say this was Andrew, and Andrew followed Jesus and stayed with Him that day. Later, Andrew found his brother Simon, and told him, "We have found the Messiah!" (John 1:35-41)
