HOLY HEROES

A rich young man said to Jesus, "Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth." And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said to him, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven; and come, follow Me." At that saying his countenance fell, and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions. And Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have riches to enter the Kingdom of God!" And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the Kingdom of God!" (Mark 10:20-24)

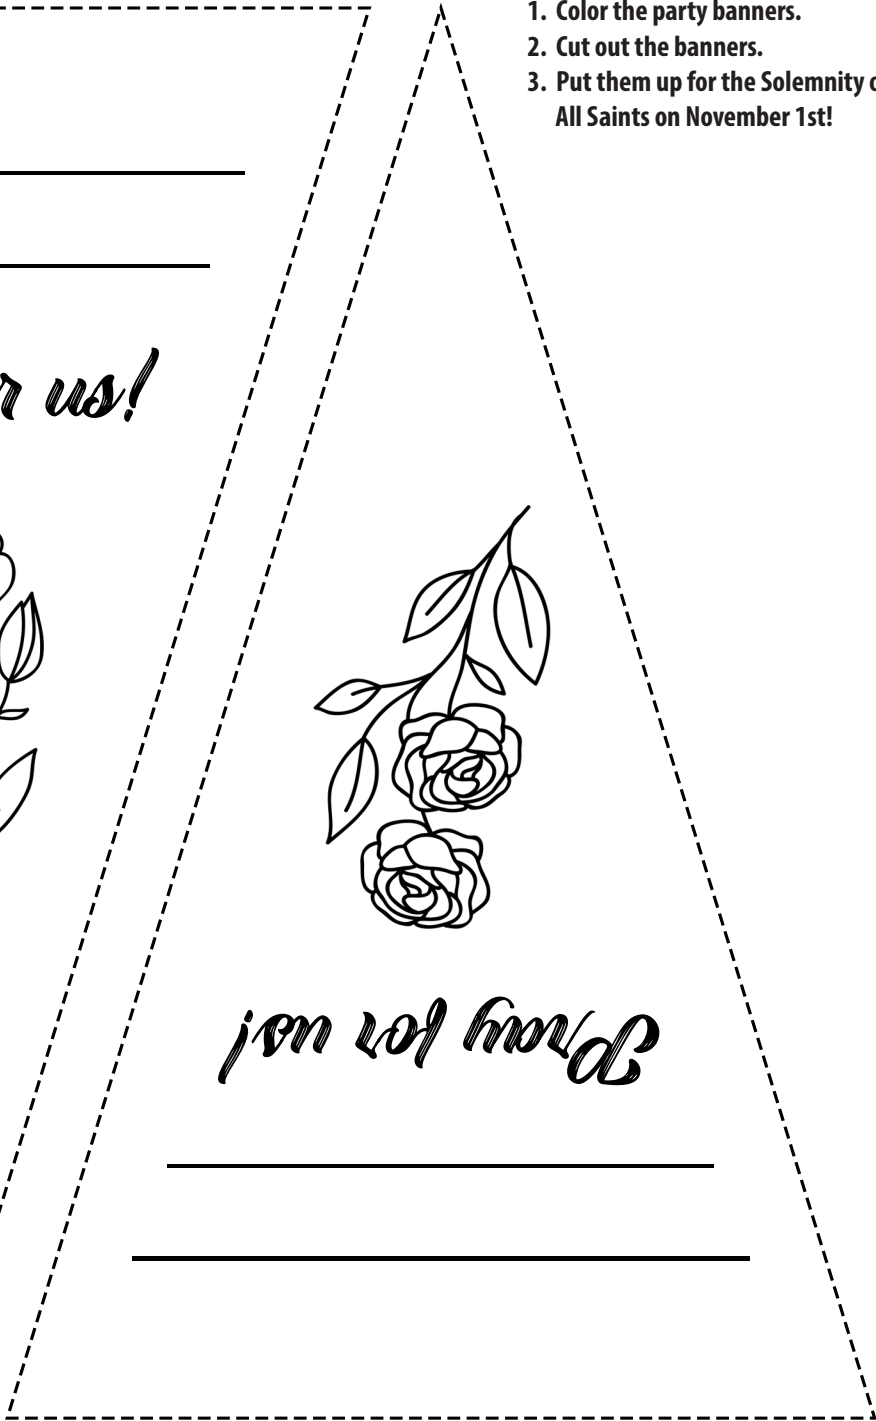

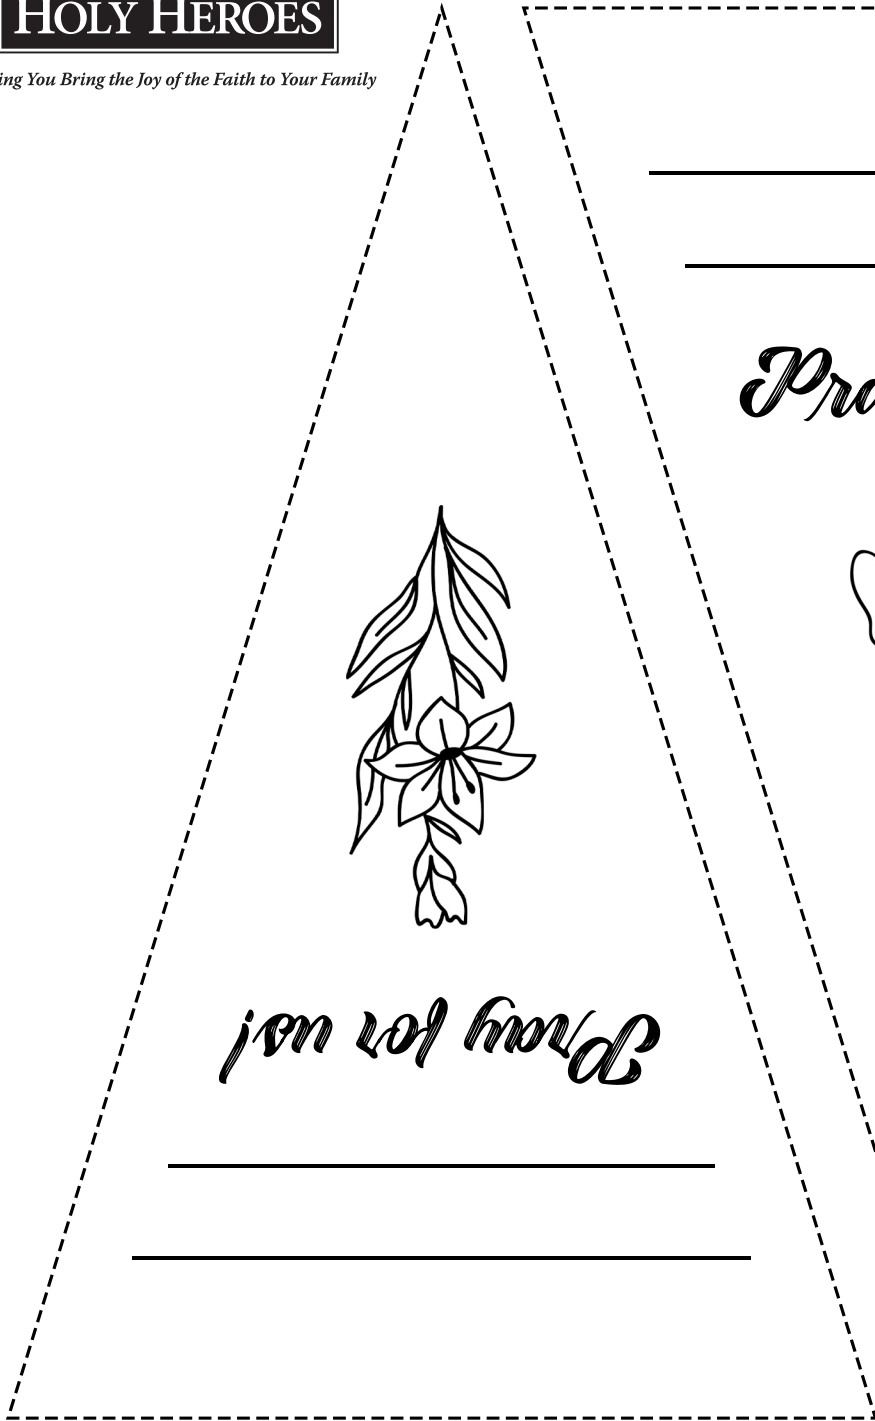

St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa) was one of many Saints who lived out the words that we hear in today's Gospel by serving the poorest of the poor.

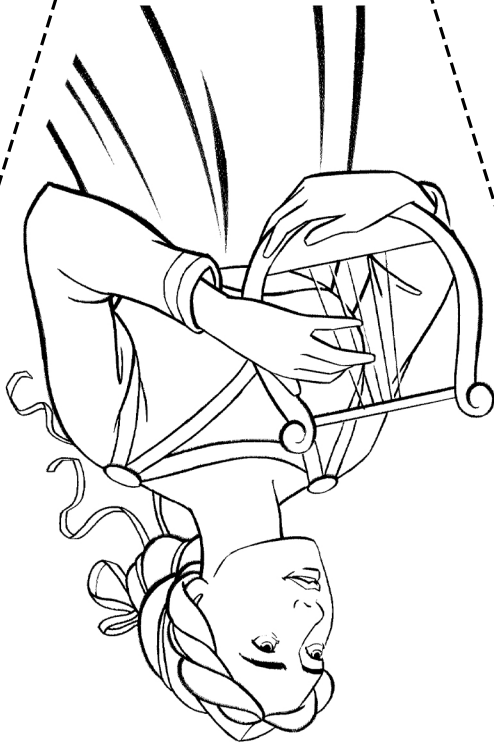

Jesus said to His disciples, "...whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of man also came not to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many."
