Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit." Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come... Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.'" (Matthew 22:1-3, 9)

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to Him, saying, "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Jesus said, "Show me the coin that pays the census tax." He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that He said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." (Matthew 22:15-21)

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law, tested Him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." (Mathew 22:34-40)
