Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in Him may have eternal life." For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. (John 3:14-15, 17)

Jesus told His disciples this parable: The Kingdom of Heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. He paid all the same wage, even the ones who had been hired in the last hour. Those who worked all day complained, but the landowner said, "What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?" (Read the whole parable in Matthew 20:1-16A)
